

2022 UAFP Officer Nominating Petition

According to the 2017 Constitution and Bylaws of the Union of Adjunct Faculty at Pace, the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer will be elected every three years in April. In order to be eligible to be an officer, candidates must be members in good standing for at least a year prior to the election.

To run for office in 2022, eligible candidates must deliver a nominating petition with at least ten handwritten signatures of members in good standing (feel free to add signature pages) to Elections Committee member Lindsey Lee in w207c in One Pace Plaza (NYC) or Elections Committee member Deirdre Courtney-Batson's mailbox in Miller (Pleasantville), or send a scan or photo to uafpelections@gmail.com, no later than midnight of February 23, 2022.

Once all signatories have been confirmed, the 2022 Elections Committee will contact candidates for their platforms, which will be sent to the UAFP membership and posted on the Elections Committee's social media sites -- @uafpadjuncts on Instagram and the Pace University Adjunct/Part-time Instructors Union Elections (UAFP) group on Facebook. Meet-the-candidate Zoom events will be held in late March, and elections will take place the week of April 4-8.
